

Page 2

5. [redacted] Miss Platt, in the Library of Congress, called and asked for the total cost figures for the new building. She was referred to the Military Construction Act of 1955 authorizing $54,500,000 for the building of which another $8,500,000 was to be made available to the National Capital Planning Commission and the Department of Interior for the acquisition of land and construction of the George Washington Memorial Parkway extension. ✓

6. [redacted] Met with Alfred Nittle, of the staff of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and advised him we had no specific information in line with his request concerning contacts made by [redacted]

Nittle thanked us for looking into this and asked if we would keep the Committee's interest in this information in mind in the event subsequent information might come to our attention.

7. [] Called Samuel Archibald, Staff Administrator, Special Government Information Subcommittee, Committee on Government Operations, to discuss his letter of 9 October concerning standards of conduct for civilian employees as it relates to protection and release of information. Was advised Mr. Archibald is travelling until the end of the month. In his absence, I did not attempt to reach any of the other members of the staff.

cc: IG
DB/S
Colonel Grogan

SECRET